Stunning Renovated 1930s Estate with Timeless Elegance and Modern Comforts. Welcome to a piece of history! Originally owned by Judge McCain, this exquisitely renovated 1930s home offers over 4,000 square feet of living space, where timeless character meets modern sophistication. Every inch of this home has been thoughtfully updated with new electrical and plumbing, HVAC units, and windows—all while preserving its classic charm. This 5-bedroom, 2 full bath, and 2 half bath masterpiece features a stunning floor plan that includes an office, formal dining room, two living areas, and a kitchen designed to impress. The soaring 17-foot ceilings in the living area and the breathtaking wrought iron staircase make a grand statement. Original wood floors, gorgeous wood ceilings scattered throughout, and unique design touches will leave you in awe. The kitchen boasts custom cabinetry, a double wall oven, and a 1920s gas cooktop, combining functionality with vintage flair. The den offers a cozy wood-burning fireplace and wet bar, great for entertaining. Two pantries provide ample storage, while attic spaces and built-ins ensure everything has its place. Step outside to enjoy porches galore, a charming courtyard, and a lush backyard adorned with the Liberty Bell—a unique and playful nod to history. The air-conditioned workshop with its own half bath, 50-amp RV hookup with water and sewer, and a 2-car carport add unmatched convenience. The owners have transformed every corner of this home into something extraordinary with their impeccable design skills and exquisite taste. For an additional consideration, the seller offers the home fully furnished, with a few cherished family heirlooms reserved. Don't miss your chance to own this one-of-a-kind home that blends history, luxury, and comfort. If a Bed and Breakfast is something you've dreamed of owning, you have found it here.
